

SLS Training & Development

Since 2003, Sign Language Specialists has served the Midwest with superb interpreting referral services. As we enter our seventh year of service, we've seen our opportunities exponentially diversify.

SLS Training & Development, our world-class interpreter education service, is key to our growing success.

SLS T&D's portfolio of interpreter education services include the affordable and convenient Online Focus skills development service, personal mentorships, and in-service trainings. We are proud to bring you "Medical Classifiers with Nigel Howard".

"Medical Classifiers with Nigel Howard" is a can't-miss opportunity!
